

WOOD'S CANDIDACY STARTS FIREWORKS IN SENATE FRIDAY

Result of Sen. Moses' Opposition to New Dyestuffs Measure

BILL FAVORED BY DUPONT'S

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Major General Wood's presidential candidacy was the vehicle for another shower of fireworks in the senate today, when Senator Kenyon, Republican of Iowa, charged that the Dupont interests virtually had threatened to attack the Wood boom unless Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, one of the general's campaign managers, desisted in his opposition to the pending bill to protect American dyestuff industry. The Duponts are the largest American manufacturers of dyestuffs, and Senator Kenyon, reading by permission of General Wood and Senator Moses, a letter to the latter, signed Charles K. Weston, manager of the Dupont publicity bureau, declared it was "certainly in the nature of a threat." The bill, which is described by its sponsors as framed to foster an American dyestuff industry and prevent Germany regaining a world control of the business, with its potential influence in the production of war munitions, was apparently having quiet time.

Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican of New Jersey, had just finished telling the senate that the pro-German influences were working to defeat the bill, boasting that they had prevented the United States from entering the dyestuffs field before the war and hoped to do it again.

Senator Thomas, Democrat of Colorado, who followed, was also opposing the measure, when Senator Kenyon broke in with:

"We have heard of the influence at work to defeat this bill," said Senator Kenyon. "Has the senator any knowledge of the influence at work to secure its passage? I have in my hand a letter addressed to a certain United States senator who is opposing this bill and is also one of the managers of the candidacy of a certain gentleman for president of the United States, which letter certainly in the nature of a threat to the senator in relation to that candidacy if he does not oppose this bill. The publicity bureau of the Dupont company at Wilmington, Del."

There was a general awakening of interest in the chamber as Senator Kenyon read the letter, as follows:

"Dear Senator Moses: "I was among the gathering of Republicans at the Playhouse in Wilmington on the evening of April 15, and listened with great interest to your address in support of the candidacy of General Wood."

"Your exposition of your candidate's attitude on national preparedness was particularly interesting. It was as if you showed the general to be in thorough accord with all of the principles involved in the pending legislation of the development of a self-contained chemical industry. . . . "The amendment which you have offered and your active opposition to the preparedness features of the dye bill, seem to me to be not in accord with your candidate's position or with your own attitude as shown by your public utterances. . . . "Personally, I want to support General Wood, but I find it difficult to reconcile the two attitudes of one of his important campaign managers—the one on the floor of the senate and the other on the dye bill—sufficiently to give full faith in his cause."

"I am sending you this publicity campaign to inform the public concerning the present status of the proposed dye legislation. . . . May I ask you to set me straight to the apparent contradiction in your attitude toward General Wood's candidacy and your attitude on the dye bill, so that I may be perfectly accurate in what I write?"

Very truly yours,

Charles K. Weston,

"Publicity Bureau."

"The letter," resumed Senator Kenyon, "is used with the full knowledge and consent of the senator (Mr. Moses), who, resents and I am sure that I ought to that General Wood also resents the letter. It shows the methods that are used to try to defeat the bill. We have the remarkable spectacle of a United States senator who is engaged in waging a presidential campaign actually threatened as to what happens to that campaign if he does not withdraw his opposition to this bill. . . . I will say further that in line with the publicity campaign which the Dupont people are carrying on for this bill, there is an article in the Manufacturers' Record of April 22—and bear in mind that the senator is dated April 16—an article entitled, 'General Wood is for preparedness,' but his chief backer is waging the bill."

And then followed an assault

POST APPEARS BEFORE HOUSE COMMITTEE IN HIS OWN BEHALF

Admits Many of Foreigners Arrested Favored Overthrow of Government

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Assistant Secretary of Labor Post, testifying today before the house rules committee, declared that 40 of the hundreds of foreigners rounded up in raids by the department of justice in the last six months admitted that they favored overthrow of the government by violence.

Mr. Post appeared in his own behalf in connection with charges of wholesale cancellation of warrants for the deportation of aliens. While he did not give the number of examinations, he said that in making 5,000 arrests, department of justice agents found only three revolutionaries. Besides declaring he sought to follow the spirit of the law, Mr. Post said that he had not violated the letter of the law; that his every decision was made on evidence, and that legally only Secretary Wilson or himself was authorized to issue deportation warrants. Recommendations of Anthony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration, favoring deportation, were unauthorized and unlawful, Mr. Post declared, adding they were often at variance with the evidence.

Mr. Post said that 263 deportations had been made among the 722 ordered during the last six months, and that lack of transportation to Russia was mainly responsible for delay. An early shipment to Odessa, he added, is planned.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the jury sent word to Judge Harris that it was impossible to reach an agreement. ## MOTIONS MADE TO QUASH INDICTMENT AGAINST MINERS

Constitutionality of Lever Act Attacked By Attorneys

DECLARE IT INOPERATIVE

INDIANAPOLIS, May 7.—Motions to quash the indictments against 125 bituminous coal miners and operators of Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania, were filed in federal court this afternoon by Charles Evans Hughes, chief counsel for the indicted miners, and Samuel D. Miller and James A. Bingham, of counsel for the operators.

The motions attack the constitutionality of the sections of the Lever food control act on which the indictments are based and assert these sections are inoperative since they relate to the fuel industry.

Sections 4, 9 and 26 and the amendment to section 4 of the Lever act, both the miners' counsel and the operators' lawyers asserted are in contradiction of the fifth amendment to the constitution, in that they deprive persons of their liberty and property without due process of law, and of the sixth amendment in that they cause criminal prosecution without informing the accused persons of the nature of the charges against them.

The indictments are defective and insufficient, the motions assert, because they "purport to relate to a period during which the president of the United States under section 25 of the act of congress of August 10, 1917, exercised powers of regulation conferred in him, and that during that period said statutory provisions of sections four, nine and 26 were inoperative and were intended to be inoperative and the obligations and duties of those engaged in the bituminous coal were determined by rules made by the president under the authority conferred on him by congress."

Each of the counts of the indictment, the motions assert, fails to charge an offense under any law of the United States, with the certainty required by law. The indictments were ambiguous, redundant, uncertain, vague and indefinite, it is declared. The motions in each case reiterated the plea in abatement, which was overruled by Judge A. B. Anderson shortly after noon.

The greater part of the session was taken up with arguments on the plea in abatement, which deal with the technical rights of trial judges in their instructions to juries.

CLAIMS INCREASED WAGES SHOULD NOT CAUSE HIGHER PRICES

Statement Made Railroad Brotherhoods Representative to Rail Labor Board

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Presenting a mass of data prepared on behalf of the railroad brotherhoods and unions tending to show that increased wages would not cause higher prices, W. J. Lauck, former secretary of the rail labor board, suggested to the railroad labor board, two methods to curb profiteering and reduce the cost of living.

Either the cost price of all commodities should be marked when leaving the industry, Mr. Lauck declared, or congress should control industries as the railroads were controlled during the war. By marking with the factory price the public he said, would know if the retailer was charging a fair price to the consumer.

The witness declared the way was open to stop the vicious circle of increased wages and increased prices. Action by congress will have to come, he asserted, unless the force of public opinion acquainted with the real cost of commodities reduces prices to the proper levels.

Labor costs have been in no way responsible for current high prices, Mr. Lauck continued, producing statistics tending to show that the enormous profits made by corporations since the beginning of the war have been the cause. Labor is hardly an appreciable element in production expense, he argued.

Though conceding, as representatives of the roads told the committee Thursday, that enough money could not be obtained from private investors at present to fill all railroad wants, the refrained from approving plans for additional government aid.

Instead, Jerome G. Hanauer, representing Kuhn, Loeb & Co., of New York, suggested that the roads be assisted in the establishment of better terminals and the expedition of equipment they now have under contract, using borrowings on the market to get themselves more motive power. Other members of the committee agreed with Mr. Hanauer. All declared that the income tax had destroyed the investing power of wealthier individuals and made the railroad credit situation more difficult.

SHORTAGE OF PRINT CAUSING HARDSHIP TO COUNTRY PRESS

Witness Before Investigating Committee Declares Many Nearly Ready to Quit

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The picture of the country press, which includes the little four-page paper from back home, fighting with its back to the wall and almost ready to go under because of the print paper shortage, was presented to a senate investigating committee today by Cortland Smith, of New York, president of the American Press Association.

Along with his picture of the troubles of the country editor, Mr. Smith made the direct charge that the print paper market had been cornered and that the print paper interests had conspired to regulate production so that prices might be kept high. In the face of this situation, he frankly declared there was little hope for the small-town papers, and that unless quick relief was provided half of them would be wiped out of existence.

The long extended hearings were interrupted so that the committee might confer behind closed doors with Assistant Attorney General Ames, who was asked to recommend some way out of the troubles.

Mr. Ames was asked especially to say what the government might do towards reducing prices and what additional legislation was required.

A number of manufacturers, brokers and merchants also were heard by the committee in executive session relative to cost of production and profits.

In a general discussion of conditions, Mr. Smith told the committee he thought there was as much profiteering in print paper as there was in other commodities, and that only the discovery of a substitute for wood pulp could break the spot market. He recommended an appropriation of $250,000 for pulp substitutes experiments and urged modifications of postal regulations so that small shippers might get shipments from the mills by parcels post.

"Not a word has reached us from any one in the United States so far. You can imagine how we feel about it."

"It is very difficult for one to live in a new country even under the best conditions, in normal times, but Russia, bled white by over four years of war and starved by the inhuman blockade is not a place where one may hope to take root easily. However, if I could at least hear from those dear to me that I left behind, it would not be so difficult."

Miss Goldman added she had not become active in social work in Russia because of her lack of language and because "I must first familiarize myself with the new and strange situation."

No wonder many of the large users of print paper are protesting against possible government control. They have knowledge from experience that government control doesn't mean lower prices and does mean that interference with the normal relationship of supply and demand will result unhappily for newspaper consumers.

It was hardly necessary for Senator Johnson to make the unequivocal statement that he will not accept the nomination for the vice presidency. He is entirely too vigorous a statesman to be satisfied with second place. It might be different if Theodore Roosevelt were alive.

A state welfare representative told a group of Jacksonville citizens yesterday that the development of methods for bettering the condition of the insane is based upon work. The reason is that work is the normal thing. It all sounds so reasonable and simple that the wonder is that the system wasn't started long ago.

A drama of boyhood among the Blue Ridge Mountains of Kentucky. In a rapid series of events of a humorous and serious character the picture delves deeply into the heart of the hills and also into the heart of the lad depicting his bravery, his devotion to the memory of his mother, his stubbornness and his bashful love. There is plenty of pep, punch, pathos and action.

SOME ERRORS TO CORRECT

There is something wrong with the system that makes it possible for a man to buy a car of sugar at 18c a pound and within a few weeks' time sell it out at 30c a pound.

There is something wrong with the system that makes it possible for a worker to demand $1 or more an hour for his work and then to make the conscious effort of doing as little as possible during the hour for which he is paid as much as he can possibly get.

There is something wrong with a system that permits four or five middlemen's profits on a given article as that article is transferred from the producer to the consumer.

These are only a few of the wrong conditions but they must be corrected before conditions become satisfactory all around. Then there must be recognition of the fact that all the blame for high prices does not belong to capitalists or profiteers, and that all of it does not belong to labor.

WHY NOT POSTPONE THE BETTERMENTS

The $50,000,000 estimate of the utility companies as to the cost of needed extension sounds so formidable that the suggestion has come that these betterments and extensions be postponed. In other lines of building activity improvements have been delayed on account of prohibitive cost and it would be better for the consumer's standpoint for the utility companies to vary their program in the same way.

This suggestion doesn't take into account the fact that what some of the companies really mean is not so much extensions as it is revaluation of properties and authority to so increase rates that there will be a proper interest return on the revaluation.

SENTIMENT BEHIND THE TRAFFIC ORDINANCE

Traffic officers who in conjunction with the city authorities are making their plans for the enforcement of the provisions of the traffic law realize that the way to have the law observed is from public sentiment. Therefore, people will be fully familiarized with all the provisions of the traffic law and led to understand that the measure was adopted for the general good and protection of both pedestrians and car drivers.

It will probably not be a very difficult task to get people to understand the advantages of the traffic ordinance because the congested conditions as the result of the increasing automobile traffic have been so apparent.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT

The soldiers' monument in Central park has not been completed but the construction work is far enough along to give proof of the excellence of the work. Certainly the monument is of artistic design and it is going to be a real ornament to Central park. As one considers the names of old soldiers most active in making the monument possible, the fact comes into prominence that many of the veterans passed on before their hopes were realized.

The veterans of the '60's are in evidence every day in the groups of people inspecting the monument construction work and the average onlooker gains a new idea of how much this monument means to the boys of the '60's whose ranks are so rapidly thinning. The monument movement was well worth while.

THE SUGAR QUESTION

(Alton Telegraph).

On October 1, 1919, Senator McNary introduced a bill giving the president absolute power to purchase the Cuban sugar crop. This bill was enacted into law, but the president refused to function.

The records at Washington show the letters from Cuba to the president, offering the sugar at 6-12 cents per pound. These letters Woodrow Wilson did not even trouble to answer.

According to Senator McNary, the president's action cost the people of the United States one billion five hundred million dollars.

Dr. George A. Zabasku, president of the United States Equalization Board, recently stated, "The ridiculous price of 17 cents wholesale for raw sugar now charged by the Louisiana planters is an outrage. Had the Sugar Equalization Board been permitted to exercise its own judgment, instead of the country facing a famine, we would have had the largest crop of sugar in history at 6-12 cents a pound."

While Woodrow was dreaming of future conquests with his League of Nations, of hobnobbing with royalty, Japan and other foreign countries were quietly getting options on the sugar of Cuba. The citizens of the United States of America are now paying for Woodrow's dreams and inaction.

BALMY DAYS

When arrives the month of May, winter's gone, beyond dispute; which reflection makes us gay, and our loud huzzas we too! It is good to go to bed, twenty minutes after ten, knowing that the storms we dread for months won't come again. It is good to rise at morn in a balmy atmosphere, gazing on the sprouting corn, and the playful colts and steers. May's a pippin and a peach o'er whose charms all birds choose. Oh, a month ago we felt the winter might return; and the sleet again might pelt, and there might be snow to burn. And it kept us in suspense, and the weather prophesies all were forever on the fence, knowing not what might befall. And a month from now we'll fry in the superheated air; and no doubt the passers-by will forgive us when we swear. But May brings us no distress, in her genial smiles we bask; climate, as we go to press, is the smoothest man could ask. It's the month that his the spot, after winter, cold and drear, every other month, I wot, should be May throughout the year.

CALHOUN PROPERTY IS TRANSFERRED

Organized by Cloverleaf Life and Casualty Company—Will Re-visit New Building Plans.

The Calhoun building, at the corner of Court and East streets, was purchased yesterday by the Cloverleaf Life and Casualty Co. The acquisition of this property gives the company frontage for the entire block from East State street to Court street.

Plans have already been drawn for the company's building, with a frontage of 100 feet on East State street, and extending north to the Calhoun building. It is probable now that the plans will be revised and the building will extend from East State street to Court street. If the building is not so erected, the property just purchased from Mrs. Calhoun will be extensively remedied. The present tenants are J. L. Rutherford and C. C. Schureman.

Altho no definite announcement has been made by the company, it is possible that actual building may be deferred until next year, in the expectancy of more normal conditions in relation to labor and materials. But certain it is that a building will later be erected as a home office for the company, spacious enough to provide for the constantly increasing business.

who enacts the role of The Lost Princess, must be given a great share of the credit for the realism of this wonderful story for it was to her that the story called for the most daring chances; and that she met the test again and again in scenes that must have seemed for more real than any spectator who views them can imagine, is monumental testimony to her courage and nerve—and more noteworthy because of the fact that she is but a mere slip of a girl.

The most weird, strange and certainly most thrilling sensational screen offering of recent years is soon to burst upon the excitement-loving public in the form of a fifteen episode serial production "THE LOST CITY," a story of the African jungle and its never-ceasing thrills and adventures.

One thing is certain—"THE LOST CITY" will grip and hold any audience as it possesses that element of curiosity, as well as sensation, that makes one intensely anxious to know the outcome of each episode, and because of this and the big manner in which it has been produced, there can be no question of doubt but that it will be the cause of tremendous crowds to gather in whatever theater it may be offered as an attraction.

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

Most people lose half of every hatch and seem to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause. An Avicol tablet placed in the drinking water, will positively save your little chicks from all such diseases. Inside of 48 hours the sick ones will be as lively as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow and develop. Mrs. Vannie Thakery, R. F. D. 3, St. Paris, O., writes: "I had 99 chicks and they all died but 22. Then I commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. They have grown wonderfully." It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find that it prevents and promptly cures white diarrhoea, chick cholera and all bowel diseases of poultry, tell us and your money will be refunded by return mail. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers, or you can send 25c or 50c today for a package by mail postpaid. Burrill Dugger Co., 688 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Don't Experiment With Catarrh; It Often Leads to Dread Consumption

You Will Never Be Cured by Local Treatment With Sprays

Catarrh is a condition of the blood and can not be cured by local applications of sprays and douches; this has been proven by the thousands who have vainly resorted to this method of treatment.

Catarrh should not be neglected or experimented with. The wrong treatment is valuable time lost, during which the disease is getting a firmer hold upon its victim, and making it more difficult for even the proper treatment to accomplish results.

Though Catarrh makes its first appearance in the nostrils, throat and air passages, the disease becomes more and more aggravated and finally reaches down into the lungs, and everyone recognizes the alarming conditions that result when the lungs are affected. Thus Catarrh may be the forerunner of that most dreaded and hopeless of all diseases, consumption.

No local treatment affords permanent relief. Experience has taught that S. S. S. is the one remedy which attacks the disease at its source, the blood, and produces satisfactory results in even the worst cases. Catarrh sufferers are urged to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. It is sold by all druggists.

You are invited to write to the Medical department for expert advice as to how to treat your own case. Address Swift Specifics Co., 254 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

WHITE HALL CITY COUNCIL ORGANIZES

Various Appointments Confirmed at Recent Meeting—Remnants of Missing Mail Sack Found—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, May 5.—The new city council organized Tuesday night by seating H. W. Gahully as alderman from the first ward to succeed George Chism, Clarence Whiteside from the second ward to succeed F. R. Campbell, H. H. Williams from the third ward to succeed Elmer Stout, resigned, and Dr. H. H. Seely from the same territory to succeed S. H. Scott, whose term had expired. The following appointments were confirmed: City marshal, T. E. Conlee, salary increased from $90 to $100 per month; superintendent of streets, A. L. Vermilion, salary increased from $4 to $5 per day; water superintendent and city collector, H. R. Fry; oil inspector, R. E. Singleton; city engineer, H. L. Caldwell. These are all re-appointments. The naming of a merchant policeman precipitated a squabble that will be given an airing at an adjourned meeting next Wednesday night. The members of the park board are also to be named at the adjourned session.

The burial of the remains of Mrs. Sarah Margaret Heskett last Sunday removes one of the oldest residents of this section, her age being nearly 87 years. She resided in the Pleasant Dale neighborhood, eight miles west of White Hall, and was the widow of Cassius Heskett, who has been dead for several years. Funeral services were held in the Pleasant Dale church, and the burial was in the Likely cemetery. A daughter, Mrs. Mina Moynihan, survives.

Mrs. Ot Fox and her babe and little daughter were thrown from their buggy onto the lawn of F. C. Griswold on West Franklin street when the team, they were driving, became frightened and collided with an electric light pole. The front wheels were smashed and the buggy overturned. The family resides east of town. The accident occurred Monday evening and the consequences are not resulting seriously to the injured ones.

Patterson School Favorite.
Patterson school appears to be the favorite in the list of schools contesting in the grade meet at White Hall Saturday. This new aggregation is a successor to the two-year high school meet that was in good swing before the war, and which embraced all the two-year high schools of Greene county. Now it is known as a grade contest, embracing Patterson, Rockbridge, Carrollton, Greenfield and White Hall. Patterson and Rockbridge are entered from the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grades, while the other three schools confine their entries to the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The literary program will be held in the high school assembly room at 9 o'clock, and the athletics will take place on Pine Grove track, the site of the proposed White Hall community high school commencing at 7 p. m.

Many Railroaders in City.
The population of White Hall is becoming more and more representative of the railroad industry. P. N. Shuman, the well known C. & A. passenger conductor, is now fixed as a citizen, they owning a nice piece of property on East Sherman. It is just as near here for Mr. Shuman to take his run out of Roadhouse terminal as it was while he resided in St. Louis. There are almost a score of C. & A. employees at Roadhouse residing here, including Dispatcher G. A. Greene and a number of round house and other employees.

A shipment of twenty-six head of pure bred Berkshire gilts from Gregory Farm left over the Burlington today for South Carolina. They all go to one buyer.

Dr. C. F. Ladd of Lincoln, Neb., is now grandpa. A son was born at noon Tuesday to their daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ladd Wood at Lincoln.

Home Talent Play Given.
"Sowing His Wild Oats," a four-act comedy by home talent, was presented in Princess Theatre Monday evening under auspices of the White Hall Round Table, the object being to raise funds for community purposes by this organization. There was a packed house, and the net receipts will exceed one hundred dollars. The presentation was well up with the local historic standard. Willis Pinkerton took a leading role along with H. H. Griswold, an old home stager, and Pinkerton did so well that he has come right to the front in the art of dramatics. Byron Vermilion was the next in importance among the male characters. The leading lady was Miss Celura Day. The remainder of the cast was composed of Harold North, Helen Edwards, Clement K. Light, Adeline Denham, Mrs. J. A. Jones, V. T. Winters, Ernest Roadhouse and Virgil Thurnau. Miss Laura Baker, president of the Round Table, last fall advocated giving a play, and named a committee for that purpose, consisting of Mrs. C. C. Brown and Mrs. R. F. Ballard. After several attempts to line up a cast, Mrs. Ballard, a former teacher and a very substantial player, was secured. She took it upon herself to put the proposition over if there were none but herself on the night of presentation, and credit for the success is in the main due to Mrs. Ballard, according to Mrs. Brown's own statement. The cast was composed of members of the historic society and the high school.

Mrs. Guy Lowenstein has returned from Lowenstein, where she was a delegate from the new White Hall chapter to the state convention of the P. O. E. Sisterhood, and while there received the charter for the local chapter. Mrs. Lowenstein reports very inspiring and instructive addresses, excellent efforts of the year's work from local chapters, and very substantial plans for next year's work. A committee was appointed to plan a course of study along lines pertaining to the American woman's responsibility as a citizen. The convention was held in the beautiful Masonic temple, and Maywood extended every hospitality, making the visitors most happy and comfortable.

Chapter B. J. of the P. O. E. Sisterhood was organized at White Hall on April 7th by Mrs. May H. DeMoney of Chicago. There are twelve charter members as follows: Mrs. Guy Lowenstein, president; Mrs. J. F. Short, vice president; Miss Kate Ellis, recording secretary; Mrs. E. C. Lucas, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. L. Winn, treasurer; Mrs. Mark Lowenstein, guard; Mrs. G. W. Whiteaker, chaplain; Miss Mayme Watson, Miss Laura Baker, Mrs. Glenn Weddell, Mrs. Emil Schram and Mrs. Guy Green. The sisterhood is the largest organization of women in the United States not an auxiliary to a men's organization. There are seventy-five chapters in Illinois.

White Hall, Ill., May 5.—The remnants of the valuable stock of mail taken from the truck at the Burlington station on the night of the 22nd have been found near the abandoned Burlington reservoir, three miles north of town. The discovery was made by Frank Whitney, a farmer residing near that scene. Some of the bonds that were being forwarded from the White Hall National bank to the federal reserve bank at St. Louis, showing a total of $1, approximately $11,000 in unregistered bonds that had been stolen. No papers of value as negotiable were left.

ALL IN READINESS FOR ATHLETIC MEET

Western Illinois High School League Meet Today—Hard to Pick Winner as All Schools Have Many New Men.

All is in readiness for the annual athletic meet of the Western Illinois High School League field this afternoon.

This is one of the oldest high school organizations in Illinois having been started over twenty years ago. Formerly Pittsfield and Griggsville were members but have dropped out in the last few years.

There is not much hope on the probable winner of the meet today. Most of the schools have comparatively new track teams and not much is known of their ability. It looks like a free for all and anybody's championship at this time.

Owing to bad weather conditions throughout Illinois the men will not be in the best of condition. It also has been impossible to get the track into good shape this spring because of the weather. However, Coach Harmon said it would be in fair shape and much better than most of the men have worked on as the majority of the schools have to practice on dirt tracks.

The following officials have been selected for the meet this afternoon:
Referee and starter—Coach W. T. Harmon.
Clerk of course—Byron G. Cully.

Assistant—Henry Smith.
Track judges—Prof. J. G. Ames, Robert Shoemaker, Ira Fanning, Carlyle Ambrosius.

Clerk of finish—Dewey Mutch.
Field judges—Bryce G. Whisler, Glen Strickler, Eugene Nelson, Nelson Jones, Roy N. Riess, James Barnes.

Field clerks—Henry Best, Felix Farrell.
Timers—Paul P. Thompson, Felix Farrell, Walter DeShara.

Callers—Charles Wright, Don Henry.
Scorer—Leon P. Ferreira.

Assistants—Elmer Nickel, Robert Miller.
Announcer—William Fielding.

Inspectors—Joel Crouch, Clarence Spalding, William Calhoun, Mack Peters, William Scott, Francis Thurman, Harry Locke, Bernard Frazer.

Chief marshal—Henry Iftner.

ALL SET FOR KENTUCKY DERBY

Louisville, Ky., May 7.—Twenty-two, three year old thoroughbreds, twenty colts and two fillies, considered the best on the American turf, today were declared fit for the Kentucky Derby. Those whose owners accept the issue will attempt to negotiate a mile and a quarter at Churchill Downs tomorrow afternoon for a stake carrying $30,000 in added money, the richest 1920 turf prize in the country.

Expectations today were for a record breaking attendance probably reaching as high as 60,000 spectators. Already hotels were reported taxed to capacity.

At the race track the number of betting machines has been increased to 105 and will provide what is believed ample facilities for the speculative public, which with approximately half that number wagered $872,000 on the 1919 derby.

Among the 22 entries; however, Wildair, Damask and Upset, the Harry Payne Whitney entry, had a very large following and apparently ruled favorites on the day before the race. Donacconna and On Watch, the George W. Loft pair, were considered next in popular esteem. Paul Jones, Peace Pennant and Sandy Beal also had a considerable following.

Unofficial odds ranged from 5 to 1 on the leaders to fifty to one on some of the others.

ENCOURAGE MORE BALL PLAYING BY YOUTHS

Cincinnati, May 7.—To encourage the playing of baseball by American youths the joint rules committee of the National and American leagues has designated a special sized ball, diamond and a special sized boys' ball for boys under 16 years of age.

Announcement of this action is contained in a bulletin bearing the signatures of the presidents of the America and National leagues. The bulletin says that baseball is the national game of the United States and it appeals to every person interested in the welfare of American boys to assist these boys to practice the game.

The bulletin states that the distance from the home plate to second base of the boys' diamond shall be 115 feet, 11 1/2 inches, and the home plate to the pitcher's rubber fifty feet. The official ball shall be not less than 3 1/4 or not more than 3 3/4 inches in circumference and shall weigh not less than 4 1/2 or more than 4 3/4 ounces.

GIBBONS AFTER WILSON'S SCALP

St. Paul, Minn., May 7.—Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul "phantom," came out of retirement today with a challenge to John Wilson of Boston, who last night wrestled the middle weight championship from Mike O'Dowd, of St. Paul, in a 10 round bout. To the Associated Press Gibbons stated that he wanted to meet the fellow who "beat O'Dowd" and had asked Mike Collins, the Minneapolis promoter, to endeavor to arrange a match with Wilson for July 4 or after in Minneapolis. Collins stated he would try to sign up Wilson at once.

Daily Market Report

STOCK EXCHANGE

HAS DULL DAY

New York, May 7.—Conditions comparable to midsummer dullness prevailed in the stock market, the turnover of 600,000 shares being the smallest, with one or two exceptions, of any all session this year.

The character of the trading was in keeping with this meager total, half a score of the usual favorites in the steel, equipment, motor and oil groups making up considerably more than 50 per cent of the while.

Rails were relatively more active than usual at irregular gains. Shipping also continued prominent, under lead of Atlantic Gulf and United Fruit, but the speculative qualities of those issues were to be predicted less on their value as marine companies than on producers of sugar and other commodities.

The contrary course pursued by the reflected further disturbance in conditions across the Rio Grande, Mexican issues yielding pressure, while Royal Dutch, Shell Transport and purely domestic issues were firm when not strong.

Reports that the war finance corporation would soon discontinue making loans to aid foreign commerce and the recommendation of the Federal Reserve board for foreign commerce and favor further credit restrictions were not especially helpful to the market.

In the main the bond market is steady, rails strengthening and Liberty issues scoring further recoveries, especially the 3½s, at sales (par value) were $3,750,000.

CORN PRICES

BREAK SHARPLY

Chicago, May 7.—Corn broke sharply during the last hour of trading today, due to heavy realizing sales, but the last prices were ¼ to ¾ better than the final figures of yesterday. New high records for the crop were established in all deliveries of corn and in July and September oats as well as rye. May corn started an upward movement and closed at $1.91½. A sale just before the close was recorded at $1.92½. This sharp reaction seemed to be around the reports that private settlements would be made by some of the shorts in money. The reaction in May called the longs in the late month to take profits.

The rail situation was also reported as slightly easier on some sections of the west and country offering to arrive here slightly earlier. Corn closed strong, with July at $1.72½ to $1.73½, and September at $1.63.

There was good buying of oats by commission houses, but the offerings were light. The market showed a tendency to advance; but most of the early gain was lost and it finished unchanged to ½¢ higher, with July at 93½ to 93½ and September 77½ to 77½. Rye was 2½¢ to 4¢ higher at the finish, while barley was up ½¢ to 2½¢. Provisions finished stronger.

ROTARY CLUB BEGINS
NEW YEAR'S WORK

Rev. M. L. Pontius Presided at Friday's Luncheon—Gift for Rotating President—Mrs. Slagle Told of Importance of Occupational Work at State Hospitals.

Rev. M. L. Pontius presided for the first time as president of the Rotary club at the luncheon Friday at the Pacific hotel. Earl M. Spink also acted upon his duties as secretary. Mr. Pontius expressed his appreciation of the honor shown him in his selection by the directors for the presidency and expressed the hope that at the end of the year all Rotarians would be willing to credit him with "having intended" to do well. The new president said that he was certain of making mistakes during his term of office but believed that his actions would be viewed with leniency.

Mr. Pontius expressed the debt of Rotary to H. M. Capps, the retiring president, and as a substantial token of esteem presented him with a brass humidor. Mr. Capps responded in a brief way, but made it very certain that he appreciated the gift and even more so the esteem of his fellow Rotarians which the token indicated.

Old Methods and New

The speaker of the day was Mrs. Eleanor Clark Slagle of the department of public welfare, who came to the luncheon as a guest of Dr. Hill. Mrs. Slagle talked particularly about the new line of effort that the department of public welfare is following in occupational work. She impressed upon Rotarians how much this work is accomplishing for the adult wards of the state housed in the insane hospitals.

The speaker contrasted in a very impressive way the old method of simply guarding these inmates, with the present plan of work. Mrs. Slagle said it is not too much to hope that in coming years the number of inmates in the hospitals may be greatly reduced. She predicated this statement on the belief that people and organizations are coming into a new understanding of the value of directing the energies of young people and on the other fact that constructive work along occupational lines is now being done for the hospital inmates.

Mrs. Slagle said among other things: "It is a pleasure to talk to a Rotary club because I find that Rotarians everywhere are interested in the department of welfare work in which we are engaged. Your slogan of 'The profit most who serves best,' fits in very aptly with the work and ideals of our department. When this department was organized soon after the beginning of Gov. Lowden's administration, it was placed under the direction of Charles Thorne, a man experienced in big business affairs, and we believe that his supervision has brought forth the best results.

The Adult Wards

"I am greatly interested in the work of the Schools for the Blind and Deaf located in this city and know that much is being accomplished there for unfortunate young people. But the work in the hospitals of the state where we have the ugly problem of the adult wards, men and women whose lives have gone wrong because of misdirected energy or misspent years.

"Today there are between 20,000 and 30,000 of these people in the hospitals of the state and at least 40 per cent of them are there because of disorganized habits. So I am tremendously interested in knowing that your club and others like it have taken up in an active way boys' work with the endeavor to keep the habits of boys organized in a normal way, to direct their energies along right lines. I wish that the work of women's clubs was less cultural and more directly interested in these same problems associated with girls.

"Some of my work thru the years has been with criminals and we must bear in mind that criminals, after all, are just folks. They are normally men like you are but men whose energies have been misdirected. So we are attempting to work out a program of rehabilitation and prevention. Illinois has taken the lead in this work and we are hoping that at some future date not too far distant there may be a center for the re-education program, a place with appropriate buildings or equipment where men and women who have reached certain stages in the re-education program may be sent. The old type of care at the insane hospitals was merely custodial. Men and women sat in rows day by day, month by month and even year after year. There were scenes of violence, furniture and equipment were smashed and the one item of broken windows in these insane hospitals ran up in a year to a very high figure.

Work is the Remedy

"The study of the question brought the idea that work is the solution for this situation and work simply because it is the normal thing. This resulted in the putting forward of this general program which we call therapy. In these hospitals it is a matter of marvelous interest and satisfaction to see that it is possible to take men and women who seem to be the very dregs of humanity and by putting them thru a course of habit training, to place them on higher levels of living.

"After the habit training period they go to the kindergarten and then to the grades. Later on when our plans are fully formulated the step from the grades will be to the occupational center and we believe from that place that a great number of these unfortunate may step out into society and take their proper place in community life.

"I am forbidden to speak particularly of what Dr. Hill is doing but I do want to say that after a visit to Jacksonville State hospital I cannot but say that a fine piece of team work is being done there."

It was a very forceful address and the Rotarians agreed that they would greatly enjoy an early visit to the state hospital to secure first hand knowledge of the occupational work in progress there.

BEARDSTOWN MEN
MEET DEATH IN RIVER

Two Prominent Young Men of That City Drown When Motor Boat Overturns—Bodies Have Not Been Recovered.

Clarence Hertzberger and Fred Dickens, two well known young men of Beardstown, were drowned in the Illinois river at that place Thursday night when a motor boat in which they were riding, overturned.

In company with two other men, Hertzberger and Dickens started for a ride in a motor boat. They had gone but a short distance when their engine went dead.

While they were trying to start it, the boat drifted down the river and struck one of the piers of the wagon bridge and overturned. All of the men were good swimmers, but the current was so strong at this point because of the high water that Hertzberger and Dickens went down.

Immediately after the tragedy searching parties started out to recover the bodies. However, up to a late hour Friday their efforts had not been successful.

INJUNCTION SERVED
ON DR. P. H. GRIGGS

Was Issued From Circuit Court in Rock Island—Dr. Griggs Expects to Make Vigorous Fight.

Dr. P. H. Griggs, local chiropractor, returned yesterday from Rock Island where he has been for several days in connection with an injunction that was issued against him out of the Rock Island county circuit court.

The injunction was issued some days ago and served for the Rock Island sheriff by the local sheriff's office. Immediately upon being served with the notice Dr. Griggs went to Rock Island and secured two attorneys and prepared to fight the case.

He was informed that the case would not come up before next Tuesday. In the meantime Dr. Griggs prevented from practicing will mark time and wait for the trial.

He will be represented at Rock Island by Attorney Peter R. Ingleson of Moline and Attorney Andrew Chezem of Davenport, Iowa. It is said the attorneys will question the validity of an injunction issued from the Rock Island court against a chiropractor doing business in Morgan county.

Dr. Griggs in conversation with a Journal reporter Friday said the move seemed to be a general one to prevent chiropractors from practicing their profession in the state. He believes it is the idea to keep them hiked from one county to another so they will have no opportunity to practice.

For the past eighteen months, Dr. Griggs has had more or less trouble. Last fall he was tried in the county court on the charge of practicing without a license. The case was heard by a jury and resulted in acquittal, the jury holding that no license was required.
